Immortality is a present possession-you are immortal or you never will be... Live here and now the immortal life; and then if you are mistaken, and there is no life after the grave, still you will have been immortal.

THIS IS THE SENIOR CLASS AD
We got it free because we know the editor!

Spacey K.C., L'il Emmett, Shoh, Sue Groooter, Hoop, Stéph, Peggity Choubie, Girch, Beaner, Gilda, Rubino, J.T., D.C-W., Launarae, Doobie, Worksydoodle and Jaz

It was 1975 and Upper School had never seen a freshmen class like us. New arrivals included Louise (oh, Chouchou) Laboda, Kathy Works and KC Ambur. Then Kathy Works ran around with her long hair streaming down. That year Gina, Debby and Pam were on the bowling team. Pam was later assigned to mascot status when she lofted 18 and lofted a ball into a pole at Towers. Freshmen PE was a course that helped us become 'accomplished young ladies' by learning that repulsive wriggle called "The Hully-Gully". Once we seenly marched up to lunch singing the Alma Mater. Health was another tribulation. The teacher tried to assign us startegic seats to keep verbosity to a minimum. We ended the tri playing daily musical chairs and disc jockey with the language equipment and blowing up pig lungs (don't inhale!) Then there was the great "Frisko Sneak"! Deena, Pam, Debby and Gina barely got back in time for Antiquity when suddenly there was a knock at the door! Uh, hello Miss Mattern. (we're dead!) But - NO! She's only asking about May Day. Praise Heaven!

It was 1976 and Upper School had never seen a sophomore class like us. Cathy Emmett and Donna Wallen joined us then. It was '76 that saw Gina's beach house become an institution better known as "The Beach". It seemed to be everyone's goal to get invited to BEACH PARTIES! Tenth grade was also the year 'Chouchou' changed to 'Michele' and was the sole source of Vashon news. Our picnic with the juniors at Miss Hemion's was great but rainy. Ms. Soucey forced members to have an Honor Society meeting and then everyone sat around watching 'Days of Our Lifes' and 'All My Children' while they chaperones graded final papers. Ski Skinny-dipping at Karen Bellamy's birthday party was the highlight of the year for Chou and Pam. We also had the best bowling team ever! Debby & Gina take a bow.

It was 1977 and the Upper School had never seen a junior class like us. Joy made her zany entrance and Donna Wallen became Donna Cole-Wallen. No other class had ever had a Junior Jamboree on Senior-sip day. Debby photographed the whole ordeal at Point Defiance after driving to lunch at Pizza Hut in two cadillacs where we held class elections! Our rain dance on May Day FLOPPED! But decorations for the gym were gorgeous. Various members of our class lived part-time at Suzy's Pfaff's apartment, guarding the refrigerator. And what other class had two of its members crash the senior-skip party!! "Come Sail Wway" was the theme to our memorable Spring Prom. And don't forget - When a '79 junior talks EVERYBOY LISTENS!!

It was 1978 and Upper School had never seen a senior class like us. Debby and Donna found the spade in ten minutes flat! TRY TO BEAT THAT!! We picked a May Day dress in one class meeting with no fights! So many of our great class was on honor roll. We were way too smart for 'senioritis' and had no need for "Preparation S" with our unique talent of laughing without smiling. Our outstanding pride was Kathy and Gretchen who were awarded National Merit Scholarships with Pam and Sue as finalists. Senior Lounge has not one but two TV's and we are inclined to have sparkling cider lunches! Such "class".

It was 1979 and the world had never seen a graduating class like us.

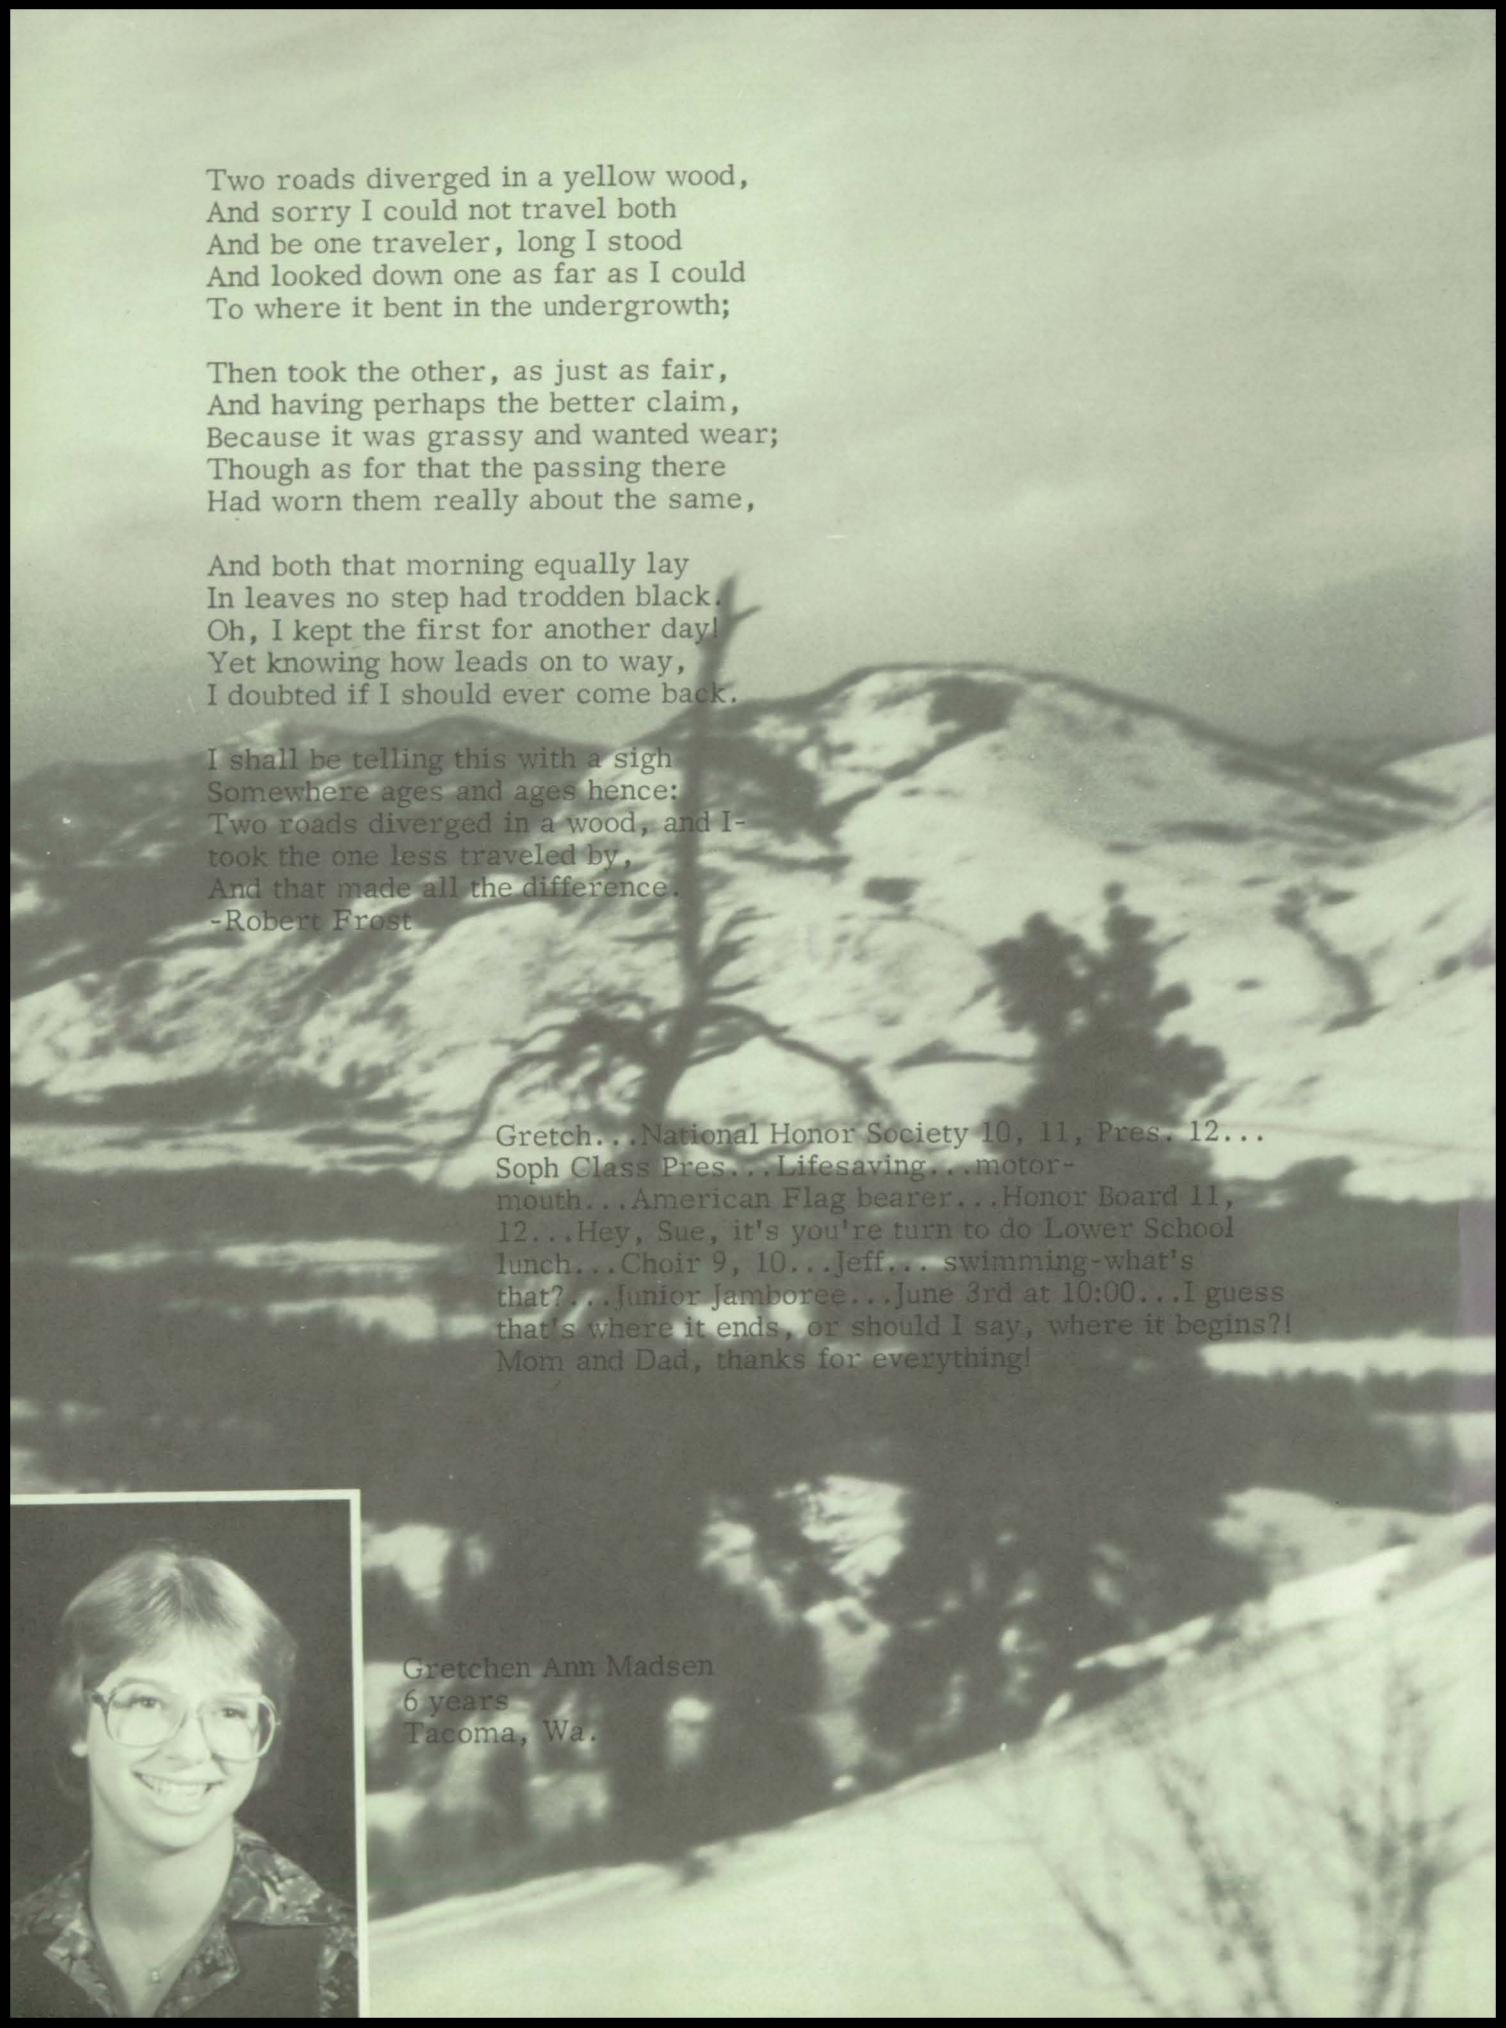

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood And looked down one as far as I could To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I-took the one less traveled by,
And that made all the difference.

"Truth," said a traveller,
"Is a rock, a mighty fortress;
Often have I been to it,
Even to its highest tower,
From whence the world looks black."

"Truth," said a traveller,
"Is a breath, a wind,
A shadow, a phantom;
Long have I pursued it,
But never have I touched
The hem of its garment."

And I believed the secind traveller;
For truth was to me
A breath, a wind
A shadow, a phantom,
And never have I touched
The hem of its garment.

-Stephen Crane

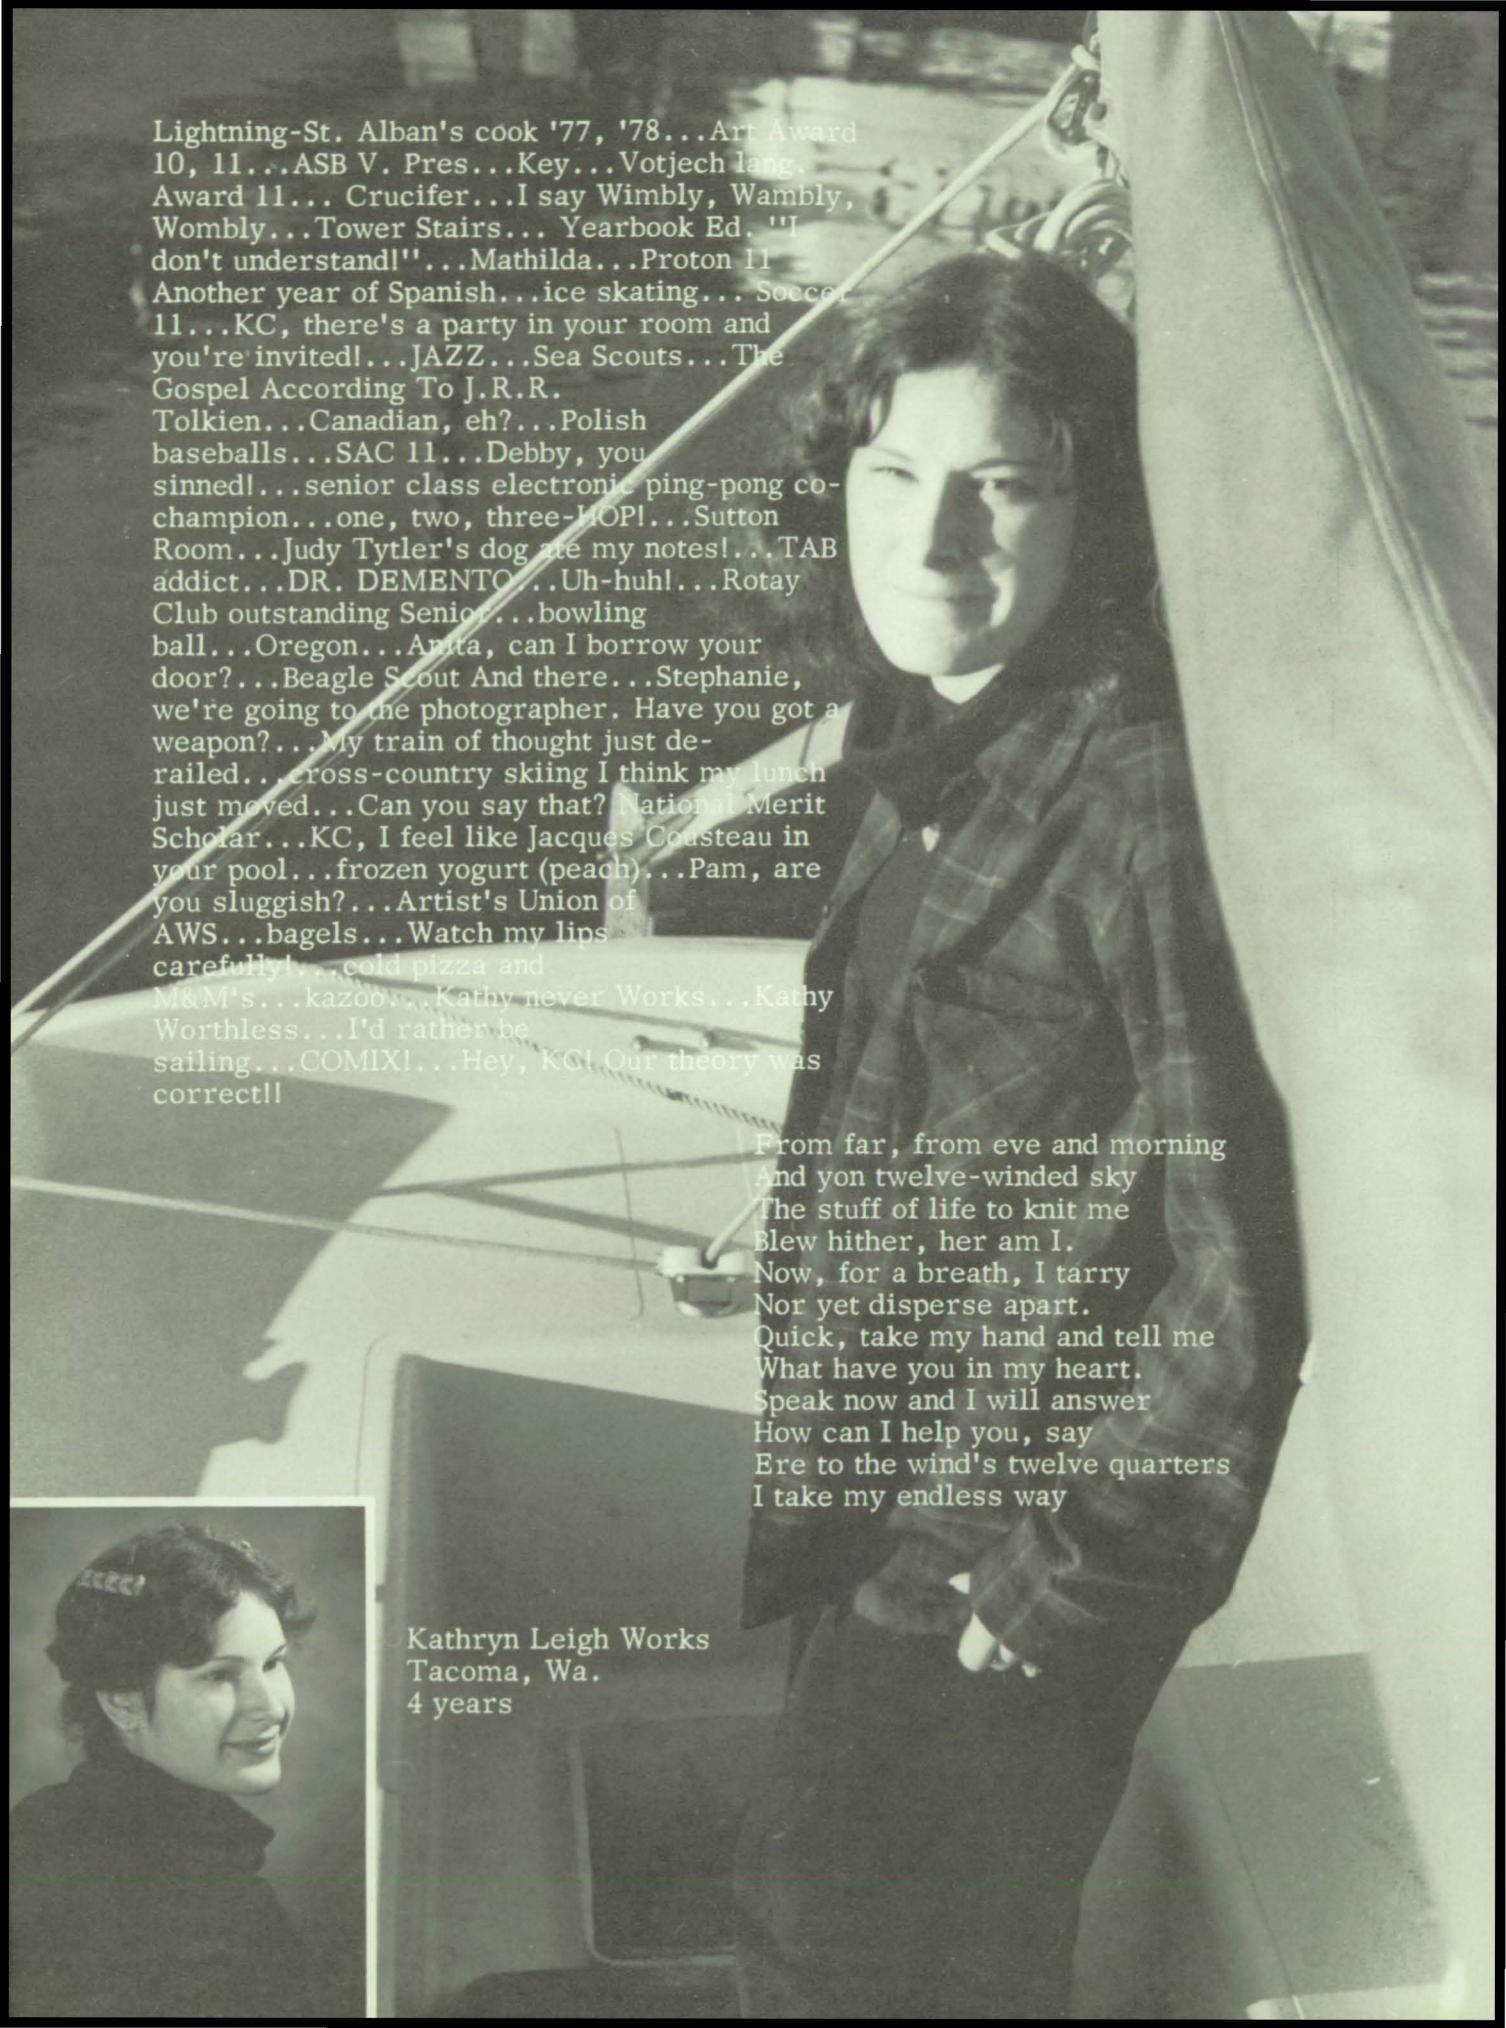

Sometimes it's been hard to be here, but I made my decision to be here and it has been worth it.
I'll miss Annie Wright but it is time for me to move on. I have much more to learn and many places to go.

I saw a man pursuing the horizon;
Round and round they sped.
I was disturbed at this;
I accosted the man.
"It is futile," I said
"You can never-"

"You lie," he cried,
And ran on.

Don't set limits on yourself. You are the only one who can do that at this point in your life. Spread your wings and feel the current of the wind. It will take you wherever you will it to. Most of all, happiness will find you-the harder you try to chase it down, the faster it will evade you.

i am closer to believing than i ever was before on the crest of this elation must i crash upon the shore and with the driftwood of acquaintance light the fire to love once more i am wind-blown...i am yours to be closer to believing to be just a breath away on the death of inspiration i would buy back yesterday but there's no crueler illusion there's no sharper coin to pay as i reach out...it slips... away from the opium of custom to the ledges of extreme don't believe it till you've held it life is seldom what it seems but lay your heart upon the table and in the shuffling of dreams remember who on earth you are but of course you know i love you or what else am i here for?

only you
not face to face but side by side for evermore and i need to be here with you for without you what am i?
just another fool out searching for some heaven
in the sky
take me closer to believing take me forward lead me on through collision and confusion while there's life beneath the sun you are the reason i continue so near for so long so close...yet...so far away so be closer to believing tho your world is torn apart for a moment changes all things and to end is but to start and if your journey's unrewarded may your god lift up your heart!

you are wind-blown...but...you are mine

Above all, there was understanding. She felt as if a great mist had been lifted from her eyes, enabling her to look upon and comprehend the significance of life; that monster made up of beauty and brutality.

-The Awakening, Kate Chopin

I know, I know you must follow the sun, wherever it leads...

-Diana Ross

When you really care for another person, it doesn't matter who, or when, or where, or why. The human condition cannot allow you to comprehend these things. All you know, as a human being, is that this overwhelming emotion is beginning to take over your consciousness. Do not try to fight, ignore, or comprehend the situation, just be honest with yourself and tell yourself that you are only human and that to really care about another person is the most beautiful gift you ever give to yourself.

Give me work to do
Give me health
Give me joy in simple things
Give me an eye for beauty,
A tongue for truth,
A heart that loves,
A mind that reasons,
A sympathy that understands;
Give me neither malice nor envy,
But a true kindness
And a noble common sense
At the close of each day
Give me a book,
And a friend with whom I can be silent.

Learn while young and not when old;
For learning is better than silver and gold,
Silver and gold will vanish away,
But a good education will never decay.

Mr. Max Mitchell, Coach

"It's necessary to relax your muscles when you can. Relaxing your brain is fatal."

Stirling Moss

"In a way an umpire is like a woman. He makes quick decisions, never changes them and doesn't think you're safe when you're out"

Larry Goetz

"I do not think that winning is the most important thing. I think winning is the only thing."
